Production of SRBMs by Pak

3669. SHRI RAMDAS AGARWAL: Will the Minister of EXTERNAL AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government are aware that Pakistan is rapidly moving towards serial production of solid propellant Short Range Ballistic Missiles (SRBMs) with Chinese assistance, as reported in the 'Hindustan Times' dated 28th February, 2001;

(b) whether in an unclassified report to the Congress, the US's Central Intelligence Agency has given the details of Pakistan's "well developed" nuclear weapon programme as well as continuing of Chinese help in its quest for deadlier missiles;

(c) whether, according to CIA's report, India still lacks engineering or production expertise in ballistic missile development; and

(d) if so, what is Government's reaction thereto?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI KRISHNAMRAJU): (a) Government have seen the news report carried in the 'Hindustan Times' dated February 28, 2001 entitled "China helping Pak produce missiles: CIA". The report is based on an unclassified report of the US Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) of August 2000 to the US Congress.

(b) and (c) Government have seen the CIA's report to the US Congress. The report inter-alia states that "Chinese entities provided increased assistance to Pakistan's ballistic missile programme during the second half of 1999" and that "Pakistan continues to acquire nuclear related and dual use equipment and material from various sources". We have also seen CIA Director George Tenet's testimony
